

Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. Honored by Women's Forum of New York for Advancing Gender Parity in the Boardroom

November 7, 2019

Recognized for Raising the Bar with Thirty Percent of Board Seats Held by Women

Company's Commitment to Board Diversity Goes Beyond Women Representation with Sixty Percent Diverse Board

MIAMI, Nov. 07, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. (Norwegian) (NYSE: NCLH), a leading global cruise company which operates the Norwegian Cruise Line, Oceania Cruises and Regent Seven Seas Cruises brands, was honored today by the Women's Forum of New York at their fifth biennial Breakfast of Corporate Champions in New York City. This event recognizes the S&P 500/Fortune 1000 companies which have achieved 30 percent or greater female representation on their corporate boards. This benchmark event brings together more than 600 thought leaders and change-makers including CEOs, board directors and government officials in support of the shared goal of gender parity in the boardroom by 2025.

"Our board is committed to seeking out directors and management leadership with diverse backgrounds. We have actively recruited women and members of minority groups to where today our board is comprised of 30% women and 60% members with diverse backgrounds," said Frank Del Rio, president and chief executive officer of Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. "The breadth of talent and experience of our board of directors provides our company with varied perspectives that are invaluable in today's dynamic global business environment."

"As an organization of top women leaders, the Women's Forum of New York salutes the 2019 Corporate Champions which are raising the bar for female board representation by actively seeking more women directors," said Janice Ellig, CEO of the Ellig Group and Chair and Founder of the Breakfast of Corporate Champions. "We salute these game-changing CEOs for accelerating the pace towards gender-balanced boardrooms and inspiring others to follow."

In 2017, Norwegian appointed its first female director to its board, Ms. Stella David, former chief executive officer of William Grant & Sons Limited. In 2018, retired U.S. Coast Guard Rear Admiral, Ms. Mary Landry, and Ms. Pamela Thomas-Graham, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Dandelion Chandelier LLC were appointed as new directors to the Company's board.
